May — Management
Hymn: I Surrender All

May 1 — Faithful Stewards

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 4:2

Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

Stewardship begins with faithfulness, not fame. God measures trustworthiness more than visibility. Management is not control—it is surrendered responsibility. As we steward time, talent, and treasure faithfully, we reflect God's character in practical ways. Wise stewardship shapes both personal integrity and generational impact.

Prayer: Lord, teach me to steward faithfully what You have entrusted to me. Amen.

Journal:

- What has God entrusted to me in this season?
- Where do I need greater discipline or intentionality?
- How does surrender shape my stewardship?

May 2 — It All Belongs to God

Scripture: Psalm 24:1

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

Ownership belongs to God; management belongs to us. Management is not control—it is surrendered responsibility. As we steward time, talent, and treasure faithfully, we reflect God's character in practical ways. Wise stewardship shapes both personal integrity and generational impact.

Prayer: Lord, teach me to steward faithfully what You have entrusted to me. Amen.
